About the Speaker

About the Speaker

Lieutenant General A Arun has taken over the reins of Dakshin Bharat Area as the General Officer Commanding on January 2 at Chennai.

Dakshin Bharat Area was previously known as Andhra, Tamil Nadu, Karnataka and Kerala area.

He takes over the new appointment after a successful tenure as the Director-General, Strategic Planning at the Army Headquarters.

General Arun is a scholar General and an intuitive leader who has excelled whilst leading troops and in contributing to the cause of nation-building. Born in June 1964 at Dindigul, Madurai, the officer volunteered to join the National Defence Academy in January 1982, despite having secured an AIR of 13 in IIT JEE. Commissioned into 8 GRENADIERS on December 14, 1985, he is a graduate of the Defence Services Staff College, Wellington, India, Centre for Defence and Strategic Studies, Canberra, Australia and National Defence College, New Delhi. Across 35 year of illustrious service, the General Officer has fulfilled diverse challenging roles to include raising and commanding a Rashtriya Rifles Battalion in Pulwama (Jammu and Kashmir), Command of Rashtriya Rifles Sector in Handwara and a Mountain Division in North East India.

Seriously wounded in operations in Jammu and Kashmir, the general is a recipient of the sena medal for gallantry, Yudh seva medal for outstanding leadership in conflict, the Vishisht seva medal for distinguished leadership and outstanding service, and the chief of army staff's commendation four times.

Report of the Program

Report of the Program

A motivational lecture was conducted at Auditorium, ACDS on 22nd Feb 2022 by an eminent speaker Lt Gen A Arun, YSM, SM, VSM, General Officer Commanding, Dakshin Bharat Area, Indian Army. He is also the Patron of the Army College of Dental Sciences and is known nationwide for his oratory skills, motivational talks and leadership skills in various fora. This happens to be his 779th session across the nation.

The occasion was also graced by the Chairman, ACDS, Maj Gen Ranjit Singh Manral, General Officer in Command, Telangana and Andhra Sub Area.

165 participants including Army Dignitaries, Faculty, Students and Auxiliary Staff of ACDS were indeed inspired through this interactive session of 2hrs where all the members actively participated and learnt about teamwork and the importance of character building in imbibing leadership qualities. Role play and rewarding students with medals for motivation were the highlights of the session.

Report of the Program

Report of the Program

A workshop of two days on Research methodology and Biostatistics was conducted by Scientific Academic Forum of Army College of Dental Sciences for 1st and 2nd year post graduate students and faculty. The workshop had lectures and group activity sessions about descriptive and inferential Biostatistics along with literature search and indexing software usage.

Guest Speaker Dr. Umesh P Wadgave demonstrated literature search methods, usage of Microsoft Excel and software for article citation. Basics of Biostatistics was taught to enlighten the students about choice of analysis for studies. The focus was to teach students about how to conduct a study from choosing the sample size for their dissertation to performing statistical analysis and presenting data. This was a perfect amalgamation of micro teaching and use of ICT (Information and Communication Technology) or latest technology in student centric learning. 56 participants brought the program into a great success.

Report of the Program

Report of the Program

Basics of local language for effective communication for patients were organized by Army College Of Dental Sciences, Secunderabad from 11 May, 2021 to 11 June, 2021 at 3:00pm for all the UG and PG students.

A tutor from Telugu Teaching Academy, Mrs. Ramageeta, M.A, B.Ed was appointed for the same. Since, students are from Army background, and find it difficult in communication with the local patients. They were explained about the importance of telugu/local language and communicate with the patients as per the DCI curriculum.

Efforts were made for the students to learn telugu/local language and communicate with the patients in the local language so as to build up a good rapport with them.

79 students attended the class regularly.
