ORDER:-

In the G.O. third read above, the Government have granted Essentiality Certificate to M/s. Army Welfare Education Society for establishment of a Dental College in Secunderabad subject to certain conditions imposed therein.

2. In the letter fourth to sixth read above, the Army College of Dental Sciences which is sponsored by the Army Welfare Education Society have represented that the main intention of the Society in establishing a Dental College at Secunderabad is to provide equal opportunities to the children of army personnel because of their unique service conditions, domicile status etc. They have further stated that since the students have to be admitted into the college from all over India to provide educational facilities to the children of Army personnel, they have requested the Government -

- 1) not to make applicable the Presidential Order, 1974 to their College;
- ii) to exempt their College from the purview of G.O.Ms. No.104, Education (EC.II) Department, dated 20th August, 1993.

- iii) to treat their Dental College on par with Government Dental Colleges;
- iv) to permit them to adopt the fee structure as prescribed for the students admitted to Government Dental Colleges in the State.

Accordingly they have requested the Government to modify the conditions 1 to 4 imposed in the G.O. third read above.

3. The Government after a careful examination of the matter have recommended to the Government of India for exemption of the Army College of Dental Sciences, Secunderabad from the provisions of Presidential Order, 1974. The Government of India in their letter 7th read above have communicated the A.P. Educational Institutions (Regulation of Admissions) (Amendment) Order, 1999 in which the courses of study at the Army College of Dental Sciences located at Secunderabad have been exempted from the provisions of A.P. Educational Institutions (Regulation of Admissions) Order, 1974 as published in the Gazette of India in their Notification No. S.O. 21 (E) Ministry of Home Affairs, dated 18th January, 1999.

4. The Government have further examined the issue of exemption of Army College of Dental Sciences, Secunderabad, from the provisions of A.P. Professional Educational Institutions (Regulation of Admissions into Under-Graduate Professional Courses through Common Entrance Test) Rules, 1993 issued in the G.O. 1st read above and also to treat this College on par with Government Dental Colleges, duly taking into consideration the judgements of the Supreme Court of India in the reference second read above.

5. After careful examination of the matter and in modification of the conditions 1 to 4 imposed in para 3 of the G.O. 3rd read above, the Government hereby exempt the Army College of Dental Sciences, Secunderabad from the provisions of A.P. Professional Educational Institutions (Regulation of Admissions into Under-Graduate Professional courses through Common Entrance Test) Rules, 1993 subject to the following conditions:

- 1) that the admissions into the Army College of Dental Sciences, Secunderabad shall be governed by the Entrance Test conducted by the Army College of Dental Sciences for the purpose and the allotment of seats shall be on the basis of merit obtained in the said Entrance Test.
- 2) that the Army College of Dental Sciences, Secunderabad shall be treated on par with Government Dental Colleges in the State and they should charge the fees as prescribed by the Government of Andhra Pradesh for the Government Dental Colleges from time to time;
- 3) that the State Government will not give any grant-in-aid to the Army College of Dental Sciences, Secunderabad;

- :2:
- 4) that the Army College of Dental Sciences shall follow the age and educational qualifications etc.. as prescribed by the Dental Council of India from time to time;
 - 5) that out of 40 seats, the Army College of Dental Sciences shall reserve 6 (six) seats in favour of the Government of Andhra Pradesh for allotment to the students of Andhra Pradesh State based on merit obtained in the EAMCET;
 - 6) that the unfilled seats, if any, should be surrendered to the Government of Andhra Pradesh for allotment basing on the merit in EAMCET;
6. Orders regarding issue of amendment to relevant rules issued in G.O.Ms.No.184, Education (EC.II) Department, dated 20-8-1993 for exemption of Army College of Dental Sciences, Secunderabad will be issued separately.
