AWARD FROM GOVERNOR

Dr. Agrima Takkur 2nd year Post Graduate Student of ACDS was awarded Consolation Prize in "Connect Chancellor" the State level competition held during Covid 19 Lockdown period. Forty two out of 7000 participants were chosen from English, Telugu, and Urdu Language submissions from various universities. The 42 Achievers received certificates and cash proxies from the Governor.

TS should forge ahead in the field of higher education: Governor

Gives away prizes to winners of Connect-Chancellor programme

SPECIAL CORRESPONDENT
HYDERABAD

Telangana Governor Dr Tamilisai Soundararajan said that Telangana State should lead the country in the field of higher education and stand in the forefront in its endeavours.

The students of Telangana have many opportunities in higher education and no student in the State should be deprived of it, she said. She was addressing the winners in the 'Connect- Chancellor' programme at Darbar Hall, Raj Bhavan here on Tuesday and gave away prizes to the winners.

A programme 'Connect-Chancellor' was conceptualised to provide an opportunity to the students of State Universities and encourage them to project their ideas. They were invited to send their entries for articles, short stories and poetry in English, Hindi, Telugu and Urdu languages on 'COVID-19 pandemic' as central theme.

Divine coincidence

Dr. Soundararajan said the response from the students was overwhelming and about 7,000 students have participated.

Telangana State Formation Day and her birthday on the same day (June 2) seemed to be a divine coincidence, the Governor said.

On this occasion, to encourage rural economy as an objective, a Goshala was opened and fruit-bearing saplings were planted on the premises of Raj Bhavan.

President Ramnath Kovind, Prime Minister Narendra Modi, Chief Minister K. Chandrasek-har Rao, Speaker of Legislative Assembly Pocharam Srinivas Reddy and several other prominent leaders greeted the Governor on her birthday.

Secretary to Governor Surendra Mohan, Chairman of Telangana State Council for Higher Education Papi Reddy, Vice-Chairman Limbadri, and Prof. Venkata Ramana, Prof. Gopal Reddy, Registrar, Osmania University and Etikala Ravinder Reddy, CEO, New Edge Consultancy Services, and others participated.

42 STUDENTS RECEIVE AWARD FROM GOVERNOR

DC CORRESPONDENT
HYDERABAD, JUNE 2

On the occasion of State Formation Day, Governor Dr Tamlisai Soundararajan, the Telangana State Council for Higher Education (TSCHE) authorities and Osmania University registrar Prof. Gopal Reddy felicitated the winners of the Connect Chancellor programme, launched earlier by the Governor.

Forty-two out of 7,000 participants were chosen from English, Telugu, and Urdu language submissions from various universities. While the rest of the participants were sent certificates via email during the event, the 42 achievers received certificates and cash prizes from the Governor.

At the event, Dr Soundararajan took the opportunity to boost the morale of the students and said, "While others may see the Covid-19 outbreak as a challenge, I see this as an opportunity to hone the potential of the students of the country." She added that it was very difficult to choose winners from the 7000 participants because all the submissions were at par and showed how smart the new generation is.
