7.2.1 – Describe at least two institutional best practices

1. Training and Supervision of Students

ACDS consists of a strong administrative hierarchy with regulations and inspection by management. ACDS adopts the Standard Operating Procedures for the administrative work. We follow staff selections guidelines laid by AWES and University. We are a merit-based institution from beginning with an intake of 40 UG students and 15 PG students every year. We have an enhanced infrastructure and friendly institute which makes ACDS the best place for learning dentistry.

- 2. Service Oriented Institute – ACDS offers the quality clinical care to patients referred from ECHS and ESIC to benefit the Ex-servicemen and the common working class of our country respectively through providing outpatient care including consultations from specialists, essential investigations and treatments at a reasonably low cost and specialized consultations and in patient care.
